It is further recognized that under existing law such lands may be inherited by the heirs of the present owner, whether or not they are members of the Omaha Tribe. Likewise, it is recognized that under existing law the Secretary of the Interior, may, in his discretion, remove restrictions upon such land, upon application by the Indian owner, whereupon the land will become subject to sale for nonpayment of State taxes and may then be mortgaged or sold. The right of the individual Indian to hold or to lose this land, under existing law, shall not be abrogated by anything contained in this Constitution, but the owner of restricted land may, with the approval of the Secretary of the Interior, voluntarily convey his land to the Omaha Tribe either in exchange for a money payment or in exchange for an assignment covering the same land or other land, as hereinafter provided.

SECTION 2. Tribal lands of the Omaha Tribe and all lands which may hereafter be acquired by the Omaha Tribe or by the United States in trust for the Omaha Tribe shall be held as Tribal lands, and no part of such lands shall be mortgaged or sold.

SECTION 6. In any assignment of Tribal lands which are now owned by the Tribe or which may hereafter be acquired for the Tribe by the United States or purchased by the Tribe out of Tribal funds, or which may be designated for the use of the Tribe, preference shall be given first, to heads of families which are entirely landless; and secondly, to heads of families which have no allotted lands or interests in allotted lands, but shall have already received assignments consistent of less than an economic unit of agricultural land or other land or interest in land of equal value, such economic unit to be determined by the Tribal Council in ordinances, which shall be subject to review by the Secretary of the Interior or his designated representative. SECTION 7. If any person holding a standard assignment of land shall, for a period of two (2) years, fail to use the land so assigned or shall use the land for any unlawful purpose, his assignment may be canceled by the Tribal Council after due notice and opportunity to be heard. Any member of the Omaha Tribe who owns an allotment of land or any share in heirship land or any deeded land, may, with the approval of the Secretary of the Interior, voluntarily transfer his interest in such land to the Tribe, receiving in return therefor a certificate of interest representing its present market value, receive therefor an assignment in the same land and or other land of equal value, or he may receive a proportionate share in a unit of agricultural grazing or other land.

Assignments made under this Section shall be known as “exchange assignments.”

SECTION 9. Exchange assignments may be used by the assignee or leased by him to Indian cooperative associations, to individual members of the Tribe or, if not individual Indian or Indian cooperative association is able and willing to lease the land at a reasonable fee, such assignments may be leased to non-Indians in the same manner as allotted lands.

SECTION 10. Upon the death of a holder of an exchange assignment, such lands shall be reassigned by the Tribal Council to his heirs or devisees, subject to the following conditions:

The economic needs of the individual, with due regard to land availability and limitation, together with the principles of justice and equity shall be the basic factors affecting the decision in land assignments of both the Tribal Council and the board of review. The decision of the board of review, as heretofore outlined, shall be final.
